Funeral Home

Merchandise

Riverview Abbey Funeral Home in Portland operates a full-service funeral home and crematory in a park-like setting on Taylors Ferry Road just west of the beautiful Willamette River.

Traditional Funerals

If your loved one requested a traditional funeral service, let Riverview Abbey help. We offer complete funeral home services in the Portland, OR, area. Let us prepare your loved one's service.

Since 1916, Riverview Abbey has been family-owned and -operated, passed down from generation to generation. This means we have the experience necessary to handle all of your needs and questions with compassion and care. We are proud to serve Portland and the surrounding area.

Cremation Services

For decades, Riverview Abbey has provided caring, compassionate, and experienced service for cremations and funerals. We want people planning funeral arrangements for themselves or for a loved one to know that they have a place they can go for all their funeral needs.

Additionally, all of our staff members are licensed through the State of Oregon Mortuary and Cemetery Board. You can rest assured that your funeral and cremation arrangements are in the hands of professionals.
